PROMOTING A PROACTIVE FOREIGN POLICY

February 2026, Issue 18

Message from the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora

As we begin 2026, I am pleased to share a message for the first edition of our Newsletter in my capacity as Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora, having assumed office less than three months ago. This year offers an important opportunity to consolidate our strategic direction as we continue to strengthen Seychelles' diplomatic service in a rapidly changing global environment.

The international landscape is marked by uncertainty, geopolitical change, economic pressures, and the accelerating impacts of climate change. For a small island developing state such as Seychelles, these challenges require an agile, strategic and nationally-driven foreign service. Our diplomacy must be purposeful and results-driven, ensuring that international engagement supports national development, resilience and Seychelles' credibility on the world stage. The Government's vision is to build a modern, resilient and people-centred foreign service that can effectively advance national interests while meeting growing demands within limited resources. This will be achieved through stronger institutional and human capacity, continued modernisation, and clear career pathways for our officers. A modern Scheme of Service and enhanced staff development programmes will further promote professionalism, merit and continuous learning across headquarters and missions.

To support this transformation, the Ministry will implement key initiatives, including the digitalisation of diplomatic operations to improve efficiency, the establishment of a Diaspora Affairs Division to strengthen engagement with Seychellois abroad, and the creation of a Development Cooperation Division to enhance coordination with partners and maximise development impact.

In the first quarter, Seychelles will expand its diplomatic presence through the opening of new embassies and the appointment of new Ambassadors. These steps will reinforce bilateral relations, deepen multilateral engagement, and strengthen support for Seychellois overseas.

A mesure que nous avançons, j'encourage l'unité, l'adaptabilité et une vision résolument tournée vers l'avenir. Je suis convaincu qu'ensemble, nous saurons relever les défis émergents et continuer à renforcer la place des Seychelles au sein de la communauté internationale.

Je tiens, à cet égard, à exprimer ma sincère reconnaissance à l'ensemble du personnel, au siège comme dans nos missions à l'étranger, pour votre dévouement, votre professionnalisme et votre engagement au service des Seychelles. Votre action demeure essentielle à la promotion et à la défense de nos intérêts nationaux et au rayonnement de la voix de notre pays sur la scène internationale.

Au nom du Président et de son Gouvernement, je vous adresse à toutes et à tous mes meilleurs vœux pour une année productive, épanouissante et couronnée de succès.

Seychelles represented at the 24th COMESA Summit of Heads of State and Government

The Republic of Seychelles participated in the 24th COMESA Summit of Heads of State and Government held from 7 to 9 October 2025 at the Kenyatta International Convention Centre in Nairobi, Kenya. Seychelles was represented by Ambassador Conrad Mederic, who actively participated in high-level discussions on regional integration, peace, and economic cooperation.

The Summit witnessed the official assumption of the COMESA Chairmanship by H.E. Dr. William Ruto, President of the Republic of Kenya, who took over from H.E. Mr. Evariste Ndayishimiye, President of the Republic of Burundi, symbolised by the handover of the COMESA gavel.

Held under the theme “Leveraging Digitalisation to Deepen Regional Value Chains for Sustainable and Inclusive Growth,” the Summit focused on strengthening regional value chains, improving market access, and promoting inclusive development. Heads of State also reviewed peace and security matters, emphasising stability as a foundation for economic growth. During the Meeting of Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Ambassador Selby Pillay briefed Member States on Seychelles’ presidential elections and reaffirmed the country’s commitment to democratic principles.

Seychelles participates in the 19th Ministerial Meeting of the Coordinating Bureau of the Non-Aligned Movement in Kampala, Uganda

Ambassador Conrad Mederic, Permanent Representative of the Republic of Seychelles to the African Union and Resident Ambassador in Addis Ababa, represented the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Tourism at the 19th Ministerial Meeting of the Coordinating Bureau of the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM), held in Kampala, Uganda from 15 to 16 October 2025. He was accompanied by Ms. Leeza Memee, Second Secretary from the Department of Foreign Affairs.

The meeting reviewed progress in implementing decisions adopted at the NAM Heads of State and Government Summit held in January 2024 under Uganda's chairmanship.

In his intervention, Ambassador Mederic highlighted achievements to date while underscoring the need for strengthened international cooperation in addressing emerging global challenges. He emphasised that climate action must remain a priority and advocated for solution-based approaches to enhance national resilience, including the operationalisation of the Multidimensional Vulnerability Index by development partners and international financial institutions.

On the margins of the meeting, the Ambassador held bilateral discussions with senior officials from Germany, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, the Philippines, and Portugal.

Seychelles Participates in the African Island States Climate Commission (AISCC) Technical Committee and Ministerial Meetings in Guinea-Bissau

In its capacity as Chair of the African Island States Climate Commission (AISCC), the Republic of Seychelles participated in the AISCC Technical Committee Meeting and Ministerial Conference held in Bissau, Guinea-Bissau, from 16 to 17 October 2025. The Minister for Agriculture, Climate Change and Environment was represented by Ambassador Selby Pillay, who led the Seychelles delegation.

The meetings focused on strengthening regional coordination on climate adaptation, energy transition, ocean governance and sustainable development among African island states. Member States deliberated on key priorities ahead of COP30, including climate finance, renewable energy initiatives and capacity-building programmes. A Memorandum of Understanding was signed to operationalise the AISCC, and the Commission's Five-Year Strategic Plan was endorsed to accelerate climate action across member states.

Ambassador Pillay also participated in high-level discussions leading to the adoption of the Guinea-Bissau Pathway for African Island States, a joint roadmap to enhance resilience, institutional coordination and resource mobilisation.

Guinea-Bissau was appointed Vice-Chair for 2025–2027. Seychelles continues to play a leading role in advocating for the priorities of African island states in the global climate arena.

Seychelles chairs Strategic Consultative Meeting of the Contact Group on Illicit Maritime Activities (CGIMA) in Bahrain

In its capacity as Chair of the Contact Group on Illicit Maritime Activities (CGIMA), the Republic of Seychelles successfully chaired the CGIMA Strategic Consultative Meeting held on 23 October 2025 on the margins of the 53rd SHADE Conference in Bahrain. The meeting, chaired by Seychelles' Resident Ambassador to the United Arab Emirates, Ambassador Gervais Moumou, marked Seychelles' first engagement since assuming the CGIMA Chairmanship.

The session brought together representatives from over fifty member states, regional organisations, international partners and industry stakeholders to review and endorse the CGIMA Strategic Roadmap 2025–2026, which outlines Seychelles' vision to strengthen regional maritime security coordination in the Western Indian Ocean.

Seychelles presented the Roadmap as a practical framework to revitalise CGIMA's convening role, promote synergies among regional mechanisms and enhance cooperation against emerging maritime threats including trafficking, illegal fishing and environmental crimes.

Participants expressed strong support for Seychelles' inclusive and pragmatic leadership, endorsing the Roadmap in principle and reaffirming Seychelles' leading role in advancing maritime security, governance and cooperation across the Western Indian Ocean.

Seychelles highlights commitment to Education, Culture, and Sustainable Seychelles reaffirmed its dedication to education, culture, and sustainable development at the 43rd UNESCO General Conference, held in Samarkand, Uzbekistan, from 29 October to 14 November 2025. The Seychelles delegation, led by Ambassador Georges Tirant, Permanent Delegate of the Republic of Seychelles to UNESCO, joined global leaders and representatives for this historic session - the first in 40 years to be held outside UNESCO Headquarters in Paris.

Chaired by Bangladesh's Ambassador, H. E. Mr. Khondker M. Talha, the Conference brought together UNESCO Director-General Audrey Azoulay, and Presidents Shavkat Mirziyoyev of Uzbekistan, Aleksandar Vučić of Serbia, and Peter Pellegrini of Slovakia, among others. As UNESCO's highest governing body, the General Conference adopted the Draft Programme and Budget for 2026–2029 and discussed key areas including education, sciences, culture, and communication.

In his address, Ambassador Tirant thanked UNESCO for adopting the Multidimensional Vulnerability Index (MVI), describing it as vital for addressing the challenges of Small Island Developing States (SIDS). He emphasised Seychelles' ongoing commitment to good governance, transparency, and inclusive development under President Patrick Herminie.

Highlighting education as central to sustainable growth, he acknowledged UNESCO's support through the Institute of Early Childhood Development (IECD), a Category II Centre in Seychelles that promotes regional collaboration. The IECD will host its second regional workshop in Mahé in November 2025.

During the session, Ambassador Tirant also announced Seychelles' preparation of a nomination dossier for Venn's Town to join the UNESCO World Heritage List.

The delegation included senior officials and youth representative Victoria Alis, who participated in the 14th UNESCO Youth Forum.

Seychelles Participates in the Second World Summit for Social Development in Doha, Qatar

Ambassador Gervais Moutou, Resident Ambassador of the Republic of Seychelles to the United Arab Emirates, represented Seychelles at the Second World Summit for Social Development held in Doha, Qatar, from 4 to 6 November 2025.

The Summit brought together more than 14,000 participants from governments, international and regional organisations, civil society, academia and the private sector to advance inclusive social development and reaffirm the global commitment to leaving no one behind.

In his intervention, Ambassador Moutou highlighted Seychelles' social model, founded on equity, solidarity and inclusion, noting that despite its small size, Seychelles continues to lead Africa in human development, with a Human Development Index of 0.848. He underscored the country's efforts to maintain social cohesion through a balanced approach to economic and social priorities.

Ambassador Moutou also emphasised the importance of keeping climate action central to development agendas, advocating for the operationalisation of the Multidimensional Vulnerability Index. He reaffirmed Seychelles' commitment to the Antigua and Barbuda Agenda for SIDS and called for sustained international focus on the vulnerabilities of Small Island Developing States.

Minister Barry Faure holds bilateral meetings on the side-lines of the EU Indo-Pacific Ministerial Forum

On 20 November 2025 in Brussels, the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora, Mr Barry Faure, held a series of high-level bilateral meetings on the margins of the EU Indo-Pacific Ministerial Forum.

Minister Faure first met with the Minister for Foreign Affairs and External Trade of the Solomon Islands, H.E. Peter Shane Agovaka, in his capacity as Chair of the Organisation of African, Caribbean and Pacific States (OACPS). Discussions focused on revitalising the OACPS, advancing implementation of the SAMOA Agreement and enhancing bilateral cooperation between Seychelles and the Solomon Islands, particularly on issues affecting Small Island Developing States.

Minister Faure subsequently met with the Secretary General of the OACPS, Mr Moosa Saleh Batraki, to exchange views on the current challenges facing the Organisation and on strategic measures to reposition it within the evolving global landscape. Minister Faure reaffirmed Seychelles' strong support for ongoing reform efforts.

Minister Faure also held talks with the EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, Ms Kaja Kallas, focusing on maritime security, illegal fishing, trafficking, piracy and cooperation under Operation Atalanta and the Economic Partnership Agreement.

Minister Barry Faure addresses the EU Indo-Pacific Ministerial Forum

The Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora, Mr. Barry Faure participated in the European Union Indo-Pacific Ministerial Forum held in Brussels on the 21st November 2025.

During the Ministerial Forum, Minister Faure commended the European Union's leadership in fostering stability and cooperation across the Indo-Pacific. Minister Faure highlighted the region's growing maritime security challenges and welcomed recent joint action by the EU NAVFOR Operation Atlanta, the Indian Navy and the Seychelles Coast Guard in countering illicit activities.

Reaffirming its commitment to inclusive multilateralism, Seychelles underscored the vital role of regional organisations and partnerships in upholding international law and strengthening resilience.

The deliberations of the Ministerial Forum chaired by the EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, Ms. Kaja Kallas were fully aligned with the position conveyed by Minister Faure, namely that safeguarding secure sea routes and advancing sustainable development are essential priorities for collective peace, security and resilience across the Indo-Pacific.

Minister Faure was accompanied by Ambassador Kenneth Racombo, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Seychelles to the Kingdom of Belgium.

Minister Barry Faure speaks at the 46th COMESA Council of Ministers Meeting

The Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora, Mr. Barry Faure, speaking at the 46th COMESA Council of Ministers meeting, called for increased effort in the development of a regional shipping line to strengthen intra-regional maritime connectivity for island and coastal Member States.

In his remarks, Minister Faure stressed that such an initiative has the potential to reduce transport and logistics costs, improve the reliability and predictability of essential imports, and reinforce collective resilience to global disruptions in shipping routes. He further noted with appreciation that a feasibility study for the proposed regional shipping line has already been completed and validated, and expressed Seychelles' readiness for renewed engagement on the way forward. The Minister also underscored the importance of collaboration with the Indian Ocean Commission (IOC) in advancing this initiative.

Minister Faure additionally highlighted the importance of pooled procurement of pharmaceutical products, noting that smaller Member States such as Seychelles, with no domestic manufacturing capacity, rely heavily on regional mechanisms to ensure affordable and reliable access to essential medicines. He called for harmonised approaches across Regional Economic Communities to maximise efficiency in health-related procurement frameworks. The Minister also requested the COMESA Secretariat to support Member States in negotiations with external partners, to ensure that the interests of smaller economies are adequately safeguarded.

During the meeting, Minister Faure also extended congratulations to Ms. Lina Hoareau, a Seychellois national, on her appointment as Manager of Human Resources at the COMESA Court of Justice, commending her achievement as a reflection of Seychelles' growing contribution to regional institutions.

Minister Faure further had the honour of delivering the vote of thanks at the opening ceremony on behalf of all Member States present, during which he reminded the need to deepen the COMESA regional integration agenda as a key step toward enhancing market access within the framework of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA).

The Minister was accompanied by Mr. Christian Faure, Director General for Regional Affairs, Mr. Jimmy Butt, Honorary Consul General for Seychelles in Zambia, Mr. Jean-Phillip Banane, Third Secretary - Regional Affairs Division and Ms. Manuella Servina, Protocol Officer at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora.

Seychelles Reaffirms Commitment to OACPS Reform and Samoa Agreement

The Republic of Seychelles reaffirmed its strong support for the Organisation of African, Caribbean and Pacific States (OACPS) during the 120th Session of the Council of Ministers held in Brussels. Led by Ambassador Beryl Samson, with Ambassador Kenneth Racombo and Second Secretary Mr. Rodney Sinon, the delegation commended the leadership of Secretary General H.E. Moussa S. Batraki and President in Office Hon. Peter Shanel Agovaka for advancing reforms and preparing for the 11th OACPS Summit in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea in March 2026.

The Council adopted nine major decisions, including approval of the Secretariat's 2026 budget, acquisition of new headquarters, outsourcing of the internal audit function, and adoption of rules under the Samoa Agreement. Seychelles, among the first to ratify, urged all member states to accelerate ratification to ensure the effective functioning of OACPS-EU institutions. The session also identified emerging economies, development banks, the private sector and philanthropists as key partners for resource mobilisation, reaffirming the role of His Majesty King Mswati III as Champion.

The meeting concluded with a resolution to uphold unity, reform and action, strengthen institutional credibility, ensure inclusivity at the Malabo Summit, and position the OACPS as a coherent voice of the Global South.

Egypt and Seychelles Strengthen Bilateral Ties During Russia-Africa Ministerial Conference

On a visit to Cairo for the Second Russia-Africa Ministerial Conference, Minister Barry Faure met with his Egyptian counterpart, Minister Badr Abdelatty, to chart a new course for enhanced bilateral cooperation.

Minister Badr Abdelatty opened the meeting by reiterating his government's congratulations to the newly elected government of Seychelles' President Patrick Herminie, and expressed his personal felicitations to Minister Barry Faure for his recent appointment in the new government.

The high-level meeting focused on deepening the long-standing friendship between the two African nations. Both Ministers reaffirmed their commitment to a strategic partnership across a diverse array of sectors, including:

- * Diplomacy and Trade: Strengthening political coordination and boosting trade and investment flows.
- * Sustainability: Collaborative efforts in environment and climate action.
- * Human Capital: Enhancing health services, capacity building, and people-to-people connections.
- * Economic Drivers: Promoting tourism and leveraging Egypt's position as Africa's second-largest economy.

Minister Abdelatty highlighted Egypt's role as a major emerging market and a developing mixed economy, noting that the synergy between private enterprise and state planning offers significant opportunities for joint ventures.

The discussions underscored a shared vision for a more integrated and prosperous Africa, with both ministers pledging to maintain regular high-level exchanges to ensure the successful implementation of these cooperative initiatives.

Minister Barry Faure meets Russian Foreign Minister, Sergei Lavrov on the side-lines of the Russia-Africa Ministerial Conference in Cairo, Egypt

Minister Barry Faure, met with Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov during the Russia-Africa Ministerial Conference in Cairo on Friday 19 December 2025.

The two diplomats reviewed the growing cooperation between their nations, specifically focusing on the framework established by the Russia-Africa Partnership Forum (Sochi, 2019). Minister Faure and Minister Lavrov discussed the positive trajectory of bilateral ties and looked forward to 2026, which marks the 50th anniversary of formal diplomatic relations between Seychelles and Russia.

Both parties pledged to continue strengthening economic and technical ties for the benefit of both peoples.

Minister Barry Faure Calls for a Russia-Africa partnership that translates into measurable outcomes for resilience, sustainable development and prosperity

Minister Barry Faure, joined African and Russian counterparts at the Second Ministerial Conference of the Russia-Africa Partnership Forum in Cairo, to endorse a Joint Statement advancing a shared Action Plan for 2026–2029. The Joint Statement reaffirms a commitment to partnerships built on trust, solidarity and a common resolve to enhance security, resilience and sustainable development across the continent and its international partners.

Ministers from across Africa and Russia reviewed progress made since the inaugural forum and accelerated work on the Action Plan that will be finalised and adopted at the third Russia-Africa Summit, to be hosted in Africa in 2026. The Joint Statement endorsed at the conference identifies coordinated steps in key areas including health and education cooperation, trade and economic development, counter-terrorism and security, and collective action on environmental and climate challenges, with a clear focus on ensuring vulnerable states receive targeted support and improved access to finance.

In the joint statement, Minister Faure pressed for concrete measures that help Small Island nations and other vulnerable states overcome barriers to climate financing. He reiterated Seychelles' call for all multilateral institutions and development partners to adopt the Multidimensional Vulnerability Index (MVI) as a practical tool to better streamline the process of accessing climate financing, especially for developing nations.

When addressing the conference, Minister Faure highlighted the need for the forthcoming Russia–Africa Partnership Forum Action Plan for 2026–2029, to outline an ambitious and balanced programme that advances Africa's priorities and aspirations. The Minister stressed on the importance of implementing innovative solutions tailored to the unique vulnerabilities faced by African Island States, enabling them to play a more impactful role in the broader partnership.

He urged all stakeholders to collectively pool resources along with cutting-edge technologies to translate Russia-Africa ambitions into tangible results. The essentiality for the strategic action plan to focus intensely on the rapid maturation of artificial intelligence, which presents unprecedented opportunities, and the importance of establishing robust transnational regulatory frameworks that balance innovation with ethical oversight were also emphasised by Minister Faure.

Training Sessions and FAD's Social Engagements

Protocol and Etiquette Training

In line with the Department's objective of enhancing collaboration with its partners and stakeholders, during the fourth quarter of 2025, the Protocol and Public Diplomacy Division conducted a series of Protocol and Etiquette Talks with students from English River, Mont Fleuri, Belonie, and Pointe Larue Secondary Schools, as well as with staff of the Ministry of Finance, National Planning and Trade. The talks were also delivered to newly appointed Members of the National Assembly and the Cabinet of Ministers.

End of year staff meeting

On November 13th, the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora, Mr. Barry Faure hosted his first staff meeting. The meeting gave the minister the opportunity to listen to concerns and suggestions raised by members of staff and to give them insight on his plans and aspirations for the ministry.

Santa Clause at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Diaspora

As part of the festive season celebrations, the Ministry's Social Committee and staff hosted a Children's Party for the children and families of the Ministry's employees. The event featured a special guest appearance by Santa Claus, who distributed gifts to attendees and posed for souvenir photos.
